GERMANY IS FACING MUNITIONS SHORTAGE OUTLOOK MENACING

Artillery at Front Has Instructions To Use Ammunitions Very Sparingly.

Important Conference Testify Gravity of Situation.

(Associated Press Cable)

Copenhagen, October 4.—Leaders of various groups of German labor were received at main headquarters this week not for the purpose of congratulating Field Marshal von Hindenburg on his birthday as first intimated, but in an effort to have German workmen speed up the production of munitions.

A lengthy conference was devoted to discussing possible improvement of conditions of labor and maintenance of the output of munitions, which General von Ludendorff, the chief quartermaster general declared was the cardinal duty of the hour.

Recently private but trustworthy reports have been received by the Associated Press that the German authorities were experiencing difficulty in preventing a falling off in the production of munitions owing to the lowering of the capacity of the individual, underfed workmen and scarcity of raw materials, notably the metals used in high grade steels.

There has been persistent reports that nickel was embarrassingly short in Germany. It is doubtful also if Germany is able to keep pace with further increase in Anglo-American productions if indeed it is now holding its own.

Reliable reports from so widely separated sources of the western front and Flanders and the Argonne say that the German artillery has strict orders to spare ammunition in every way possible.

MINISTER OF MUNITIONS EXPRESSES CONFIDENCE

(By Associated Press Cable)

Amsterdam, October 4.—Fears that Germany might possibly be unable to continue fighting owing to the lack of raw materials have been answered by Major General Schuech the new minister of munitions who, according to a dispatch from Berlin, says:

"Regarding the supply of raw materials particularly those required for the manufacture of guns and ammunition we were not dependent solely on the stock in hands, which, however,

Striking Again on a Wide Front East of Ypres Early This Morning Field Marshal Haig Began Another Tremendous Offensive Attack on the German Lines.

LONG LINES OF GERMAN PRISONERS PASSING THROUGH TO BRITISH REAR INDICATE THE SUCCESS OF ATTACK

With Today's Offensive the Battle of Flanders is Resembling More Last Year's Battle of the Somme And Another "Strategic Retreat" by Hindenburg Seems Probable.

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Striking again on a wide front east of Ypres the British this morning began another drive at the German lines in Flanders. Field Marshal Haig in his early report announced satisfactory progress was being made. A steady stream of German prisoners is being sent to the British rear.

The renewal of the Flanders drive comes after an eight day interval. On Wednesday of last week the British swept forward on both sides of the Ypres-Menin road, advancing from a half to a mile at various points along the line.

With today's renewal of their drive the battle of Flanders is growing more and more to resemble last year's battle of the Somme, which was followed by the memorable Hindenburg "strategic retreat."

The same general tactics now being pursued of persistent driving at the same point in the line are evidently expected by the British to achieve a similar result.

Today's attack followed closely a last despairing effort of the Germans to stave it off. The Germans struck at the British line yesterday at its most vital point between Tower Hamlets and Polygon Wood, but their troops again were mowed down by the British guns, the assault making no impression whatever on the British line or effecting the purpose to attack today.

The force of the drive today apparently was greater than that of last week for the early dispatches report advances of a mile or more in places. Completion of the capture of the Passchendaele-Gheluvelt ridge which was the immediate objective of the British will open up the Flanders plain to them. In the early fighting the attacking troops penetrated some distance beyond Broodseinde, lying at an important cross roads. This point was more than a mile east of Zonnebeke, through which the British line passed as this morning's attack was begun.

Prisoners are coming in much more rapidly and in greater numbers than in the last drive. Everywhere the British have done splendidly in one of the most pretentious offensives attempted on this front.

At ten o'clock the battle was still raging furiously. It was apparent that the Germans would use every means to retake this invaluable territory and determined counter attacks were expected.

would be insufficient. We have to produce them and this production is proceeding satisfactorily."

Although transportation difficulties of last year seem to have been overcome, the minister of munitions expects a probable recurrence the coming winter.

Asking that Wisconsin Man be Sent to Berlin.

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Columbus, O., October 4.—Deportation of United States Senator Robert M. LaFollette and his supporters through the allies' lines to Berlin because of the Wisconsin Senator's "treasonable utterances" was urged in a resolution received today by Governor James M. Cox, from the executives club of Toledo, representing every association in that city, including the Commercial, Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs.

Copies of the resolution were sent to President Wilson, Senators Pomerene and Harding from Ohio, and to Congressman Sherwood of the Toledo District, with the request that they be spread on the minutes of Congress.

The resolutions point out that while thousands of young men have answered their country's call and are on their way to the front to shed their blood for the "freedom of humanity," a small minority of demagogues and traitors have undertaken to create a fire in the rear and demoralize the loyal forces fighting to win the war.

The resolution continues: "Be it further resolved that we do hereby suggest to the President of the United States, that in conformity with the precedent set by Abraham ette County, which yesterday announced the completion of its entire allotment, $505,400." The American Press Association, which sent the story broadcast over the state, says:

Fayette Does Its Bit. Fayette claims the distinction of being the first Ohio county to subscribe its liberty loan quota. The county's allotment—$505,400—was purchased by bankers of the county who will redistribute the bonds among rural residents. The Cincinnati Times-Star, in a box feature on first page, made the following mention of the way Fayette bankers are handling the bonds: ONE COUNTY RAISES ITS ENTIRE QUOTA

"We have completed our entire Liberty Loan quota of $505,400," was the word flashed to Cincinnati Wednesday afternoon from the chairman of the Fayette county committee at Washington Court House. The news was sent to Gordon Reis, chairman of the County Districts committee in Cincinnati. Fayette county is in the Cincinnati Liberty Bond zone.

The Wilmington News of Wednesday says:

FAYETTE LEADS ENTIRE WORLD "Fayette County makes claim of being the first county in America to subscribe the full allotment of second Liberty Loan bonds, the bankers of the county having today pledged the county's full quota $505,400.

"It will be remembered that Fayette County fell a little amiss on the first issue of bonds, having with some difficulty aroused the spirit of the good people to the necessity of action. However, it is apparent that they are fully awake now and the instantaneous subscription of the full allotment marks the people of the county at least deserving of the claim they make of being the first in the whole country to respond with a full subscription."

Other newspapers gave special mention to the way Fayette county bankers met the situation, and the patriotic manner of handling the bond issue.

In Fayette county the citizens already are beginning to demonstrate that the confidence of the bankers has not been misplaced, and are voluntarily ordering bonds reaching into the thousands of dollars. One banker, while out on the street, was approached three times and given orders for bonds aggregating $4300. One of these men was a farmer who had not purchased of the other issue of bonds, but made the purchase because he deemed it a good investment as well as a duty to his country and his fellow men.

The campaign is now on in real earnest and any banker or any worker will take orders for bonds, or give information concerning them.

She also expressed the desire of the corps to do solid school work with always the good of the pupil in view.

Mrs. Walter McClains solo, "Only a Rose Bud" was appreciated by all. Supt. McClain gave a helpful and suggestive talk relating to general problems that confront teachers and patrons. He showed the necessity of educating the child to meet the demands of the future. He emphasized the necessity of prompt attendance and urged that teachers and patrons co-operate with this motive in view.

FUNERAL SERVICES MRS. SARAH L. MARSHALL

Many friends and relatives attend the funeral services of Mrs. Sarah L. Marshall at the home on Washington Ave. Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Impressive, yet simple, services were conducted by Rev. Arthur P. Cherrington of Grace Church. Miss Edith Gardner and Mrs. John Whittington sang beautifully one of Mrs. Marshall's favorite hymns "Rock of Ages." Mrs. Nye Greig accompanying. Rev. Cherrington spoke briefly but feelingly of the noble Christian character and useful life of Mrs. Marshall and read the beautiful prayer which relatives found in Mrs. Marshall's pocket-book, and the memoir which was written by Mr. T. J. Lindsey a life long friend of both Mrs. Marshall and her husband.

At the close of the services Miss Gardner sang "Some Time We'll Understand."

Floral remembrances, tributes of many friends of long years acquaintance, filled rooms.

Relatives and friends from a distance were: Mrs. Carl Baer, Riverside, Ill.; Mrs. Harland Beatty, of Chicago; Mrs. Marie Jones, of Hillsboro; Mrs. Charles Cartwright and Mr. H. B. Patterson, of Wilmington; Misses Laurel Duff and Gladys Hubbard, of South Solon.

The pall-bearers were: Messrs. T. J. Lindsey, A. R. Creamer, Nye Greig, R. C. Hunt, R. S. Quinn and W. C. Waddell.

Burial was made in the Washington cemetery.

MEMOIR

Sarah L. Barnes, was born in Albion, New York, November 24th, 1845. On the 19th day of July, 1863 she was married to Jasper R. Marshall, who died November the 7th, 1915. She was the mother of six children, three, dying in infancy. The surviving children are: Miss Nelle Marshall, Mrs. Fred L. Wilson and daughter, Margaret, of South Solon, Ohio, and Mr. Maurice C. Marshall, of Pittsburg, Pa. Mrs. Marshall passed peacefully away, surrounded by those who were near and dear to her, at 9 o'clock p. m., Sunday, September 30th, 1917, aged 71 years, 10 months and 24 days.

In 1867 together with her husband, she left New York State and located in Hillsboro, Ohio; and moved to Washington Court House, in 1885.

Mrs. Marshall was a true wife, a devoted mother, faithful to all her duties, as wife, mother and friend; no higher eulogy can be pronounced on any woman.

She was spared to more than the allotted time of life, to guide her son and daughters to manhood and womanhood.

Her constant forgetfulness of self and unflinching sympathy for others made her the friend of all she met. No one was more scrupulously just to the character and performance of others; no one more candid; no one more deserving of every kind of reliance; endowed with a heart and mind that always looked for and found the good and right in all circumstances. She united the utmost delicacy and nobleness of sentiment; a benevolence that knew no limit but the farthest extent of her ability. Ripened in years and fully prepar-

Of course, you remember the other Skinner pictures, depicting the life of those two lovable characters, Wm. Manning, Skinner and Honey, his wife played by Hazel Daley.

"Skinner's Baby" ESSAYAY

Making a Hobby Out of Hubby

A Continuous Laugh For an Hour and a Half

Have you never seen one of those proud, perspiring, perturbed, puffed-up persons, a prospective pater? If not, you've missed one of life's joyful thrills. Skinner was a regular guy, everybody knows that, and the office force was willing to take the payroll on him. Imagine the sensation when he breezed in like a quarter-horse, breathed at the top of his voice the "info" that McLaughlin, Perkins & Skinner would honor the arrival of "Skinner's Baby" with a holiday? He neglected to elucidate that he was merely rearing the gladsome tidings from a promise that "Honey" had made him, so the gang took it for gospel. "It's a Boy," started a stampede that made a bargain counter rush look like "right about face." When he finally came up for air and gasped, "Holiday," they made a begira for home. When Skinner hit the front doorstep he had to hurdle a truck-load of trains, baseball paraphernalia, riding horses and other implements of juvenile warfare, for the bunch certainly put a brown crust on anything they cooked up. And nobody but Honey, Skinner and the officiating Doc knew that the "Stork Limited" was running behind the schedule. Then sad to relate the man of the hour discovered that admission to his own celebration was by card only, and his invitation had been misplaced. He was playing the lead in "Ousted from His Own Fireside." However, they took pity on him and finally let him in on the anti-climax—but it almost amounted to a climax when Skinner found out what had occurred.

ed for another state of existence she passed on to enjoy the reward of a life well spent on earth.

And he with whom she trod, the rugged paths of life for more than a half century will be her companion once more, and they will sleep until that great day when it will be declared "that time shall be no more."

The beautiful prayer, evidently a favorite with Mrs. Marshall, carried by her in her purse follows:

A PRAYER
Let me do my work each day; and if the darkened hours of despair overcome me, may I not forget the strength that comforted me in the desolation of other times.

May I still remember the bright hours that found me walking over the silent hills of my childhood, or dreaming on the margin of the quiet river, when a light glowed within me, and I promised my early God to have courage amid the tempests of the changing years. Spare me from bitterness and passions of unguarded movements. May I not forget that poverty and riches are of the spirit.

Though the world know me not, may my thoughts and actions be such as shall keep me friendly with myself. Lift my eyes from the earth and let me not forget the uses of the stars. Forbid that I should judge others lest I condemn myself. Let me not follow the clamor of the world, but walk calmly in the path. Give me a few friends who will love me for what I am; and keep ever burning before my vagrant steps the kindly light of hope.

And though age and infirmity overtake me, and I come not within sight of the castle of my dreams, teach me still to be thankful for life and for time's olden memories that are good and sweet and may the evening's twilight find me gentle still.—Exchange.

FORMER LOGAL MAN TAKES UPWARD STEP AT SALT LAKE CITY

The Herald Republican, published at Salt Lake City, Utah, in a recent issue contained the following complimentary mention of Mr. Philip Bentz, former resident of this city, who is a son of Mrs. Elizabeth Bentz and brother of Mr. Louis W. Bentz, merchant, of East Point street.

"Business and railroad men in Salt Lake City and Murray, and in fact throughout this entire portion of the state, will learn with a great deal of interest the news that Philip Bentz, for the past eighteen years station agent for the Oregon Short Line at Murray, has resigned from that position to accept the office of secretary-treasurer of the Miller-Cahoon company of Murry, Utah, and Idaho Falls, Ida., one of the largest farm implements, machinery and lumber companies in the Intermountain west.

"For the past twenty-seven years Mr. Bentz has served the Oregon Short Line continually, eighteen years of this time being stationed at Murray in charge of the Oregon Short Line's business at that point, which is one of the largest stations on the entire system.

"Mr. Bentz is one of the best known railroad men in the entire western country and his long service at the important Murray station has given him wide acquaintance among business, mining and smelting men throughout the state.

Mr. Bentz served one term as mayor of Murray.

L. C. Miller, general manager of the Miller-Cahoon company has been the treasurer of that company and H. B. Smith, sales manager, has held the office of secretary. Mr. Miller's work as general manager requires so much of his time, however, that he is relinquishing the office of treasurer to Mr. Bentz. The sales of the Miller-Cahoon company have reached such a volume that Mr. Smith finds it necessary to give his entire time to the sales department and Mr. Bentz therefore takes his duties of secretary-treasurer of the Miller-Cahoon company immediately."

There is a sacred, hallowed feeling which takes possession of one as he enters the door of this home, so many years under Christian influence.

The meeting was one of enthusiasm and inspiration, due in part, no doubt, to the fine missionary talk given by Rev. Buck, of the O. W. U. on Sunday preceding the meeting.

rican Question"—textbook "Under the Crescent and Among the Kraols." After a short business meeting a very interesting program followed; Mrs. W. E. Ireland as leader gave valuable information. She introduced her reading on Africa by a little hymn entitled: "The Master's Service First." Her reading covered much of importance concerning Africa.

"Africa's biggest problem is its bigness" being the home of one-eighth of the population of our world. For all Africa the average missionary parish is 133,000 people. Surely it is time for us to study this continent and its people.

FAYETTE LIBERTY LOAN COMMITTEE HIGHLY PRAISED

Leaders Back of Liberty Loan Campaign in This Federal Reserve District Send Congratulations to Local Liberty Loan Committee.

Chairman C. P. Ballard, of the Fayette County Liberty Loan Committee, is receiving congratulations over the phenomenal showing made by the Bankers of Fayette County, and those in charge of the Federal Reserve District work have announced Fayette is the first county to subscribe the full allotment.

Manager L. B. Williams, of the Federal Reserve District committee, which includes Ohio and parts of Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Kentucky, telegraphed Mr. Ballard as follows:

"Fayette leads all counties in this district by being first subscribing her quota. Desire to make wide recognition of Fayette County's leadership. Congratulations."

Gordon Reis, Chairman, of the Cincinnati County District, Liberty Loan Committee, has written Chairman Ballard, saying in part:

"I wish to congratulate you and your efficient committee and co-workers on the immediate, generous response to the Second Liberty Loan offer."

"We did not anticipate any county would be in position to report its full quota subscribed, and I know positively in that respect Fayette County occupies the roll of honor in this district, and I assume you are probably the first county in the entire state to report its entire quota subscribed."

"I will personally see to it that the Cincinnati newspapers are notified of this fact. I am very anxious to have the news broadcast, not only to reflect proper honor, glory and credit upon your excellent county, but also to make it an incentive to other counties in the district."

"Again permit me to congratulate you and thank you sincerely for your extreme kindness and courtesy."

RECKLESS DRIVER SENDS ATTORNEY

A Dayton attorney representing Steve Kender, the man who is alleged to have deliberately rammed the Grant Rankin automobile off the public highway, Sunday morning, was in this city Wednesday endeavoring to adjust the matter amicably without court proceedings, but so far as known did not succeed in doing so, and there is indication that the courts will soon be interested in the case.

The attorney for Kender is said to have insisted that the Kender machine did not strike the Rankin car, but passed close to it. However, the marks on the Rankin machine indicate that the car was dealt more than one heavy blow by a big car.

FAYETTE STANDS OUT IN EYES OF GENERAL PUBLIC

Action of Fayette County Bankers Is Attracting Wide Attention—Demand for Bonds Is Growing Rapidly—Farmers Interested.

The action of Fayette county bankers in taking the entire allotment of Liberty Bonds assigned to Fayette county by placing their faith in the loyalty of Fayette county citizens to stand firmly behind them, is attracting wide attention, and is adding interest to the big drive now under way all over the country.

Fayette leaped suddenly into the public eye, and regarding the matter the Ohio State Journal says:

"Results here are distinctly disappointing, compared with Fayette County, which yesterday announced the completion of its entire allotment, $505,400."

The American Press Association, which sent the story broadcast over the state, says:

Fayette Does its Bit.

Fayette claims the distinction of being the first Ohio county to subscribe its liberty loan quota. The county's allotment—$505,400—was purchased by bankers of the county who will redistribute the bonds among rural residents.

The Cincinnati Times-Star, in a box feature on first page, made the following mention of the way Fayette bankers are handling the bonds:

ONE COUNTY RAISES ITS ENTIRE QUOTA

"We have completed our entire Liberty Loan quota of $505,000," was the word flashed to Cincinnati Wednesday afternoon from the chairman of the Fayette county committee at Washington Court House. The news was sent to Gordon Reis, chairman of the County Districts committee in Cincinnati. Fayette county is in the Cincinnati Liberty Bond zone.

The Wilmington News of Wednesday says:

FAYETTE LEADS ENTIRE WORLD

"Fayette County makes claim of being the first county in America to subscribe the full allotment of second Liberty Loan bonds, the bankers of the county having today pledged the county's full quota $505,400."

"It will be remembered that Fayette County fell a little amiss on the first issue of bonds, having with some difficulty aroused the spirit of the good people to the necessity of action. However, it is apparent that they are fully awake now and the instantaneous subscription of the full allotment marks the people of the county at least deserving of the claim they make of being the first in the whole country to respond with a full subscription."

Other newspapers gave special mention to the way Fayette county bankers met the situation, and the patriotic manner of handling the bond issue.

In Fayette county the citizens already are beginning to demonstrate that the confidence of the bankers has not been misplaced, and are voluntarily ordering bonds reaching into the thousands of dollars. One banker, while out on the street, was approached three times and given orders for bonds aggregating $4300. One of these men was a farmer who had not purchased of the other issue of bonds, but made the purchase because he deemed it a good investment as well as a duty to his country and his fellow men.

The campaign is now on in real earnest and any banker or any worker will take orders for bonds, or give information concerning them.

PARENT-TEACHERS CHERRY HILL CLUB IN FIRST MEETING

Enjoyable Session Marks Opening of Year.

The Parents' and Teachers' Club of Cherry Hill held their first meeting Wednesday eve, October 3.

The program was opened by singing America.

After the business session Miss Nellie Rowan favored us with a piano solo.

Miss McCafferty gave a very interesting talk in which she mentioned some of the plans for the school term. She emphasized the necessity of the teacher acquainting herself with the child and its environment and then with the co-operation of the parent solving the problems that present itself. She also expressed the desire of the corps to do solid school work with always the good of the pupil in view.

Mrs. Walter McClains solo, "Only a Rose Bud" was appreciated by all. Supt. McClain gave a helpful and suggestive talk relating to general problems that confront teachers and patrons. He showed the necessity of educating the child to meet the demands of the future. He emphasized the necessity of prompt attendance and urged that teachers and patrons co-operate with this motive in view.

FUNERAL SERVICES MRS. SARAH L. MARSHALL

Many friends and relatives attended the funeral services of Mrs. Sarah L. Marshall at the home on Washington Ave. Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Impressive, yet simple, services were conducted by Rev. Arthur P. Cherrington of Grace Church. Miss Edith Gardner and Mrs. John Whittington sang beautifully one of Mrs. Marshall's favorite hymns "Rock of Ages." Mrs. Nye Gregg accompanying.

Rev. Cherrington spoke briefly but feelingly of the noble Christian character and useful life of Mrs. Marshall and read the beautiful prayer which relatives found in Mrs. Marshall's pocket-book, and the memoir which was written by Mr. T. J. Lindsey a life long friend of both Mrs. Marshall and her husband.

At the close of the services Miss Gardner sang "Some Time We'll Understand."

Floral remembrances, tributes of many friends of long years acquaintance, filled rooms.

Relatives and friends from a distance were: Mrs. Carl Baer, Riverside, Ill.; Mrs. Harland Beatty, of Chicago; Mrs. Marie Jones, of Hillsboro; Mrs. Charles Cartwright and Mr. H. B. Patterson, of Wilmington; Misses Laurel Duff and Gladys Hubbard, of South Solon.

The pall-bearers were: Messrs T. J. Lindsey, A. R. Creamer, Nye Gregg, R. C. Hunt, R. S. Quinn and W. C. Waddell.

Burial was made in the Washington cemetery.

MEMOIR

Sarah L. Barnes, was born in Albion, New York, November 24th, 1845. On the 19th day of July, 1863 she was married to Jasper R. Marshall, who died November 7th, 1915. She was the mother of six children, three, dying in infancy. The surviving children are Miss Nellie Marshall, Mrs. Fred L. Wilson and daughter, Margaret, of South Solon, Ohio, and Mr. Maurice C. Marshall, of Pittsburgh, Pa. Mrs. Marshall passed peacefully away, surrounded by those who were near and dear to her, at 9 o'clock p. m., Sunday, September 30th, 1917, aged 71 years, 10 months and 24 days.

In 1867 together with her husband, she left New York State and located in Hillsboro, Ohio; and moved to Washington Court House, in 1885.

Mrs. Marshall was a true wife, a devoted mother, faithful to all her duties, as wife, mother and friend; no higher eulogy can be pronounced on any woman.

She was spared to more than the allotted time of life, to guide her son and daughters to manhood and womanhood.

Her constant forgetfulness of self and unflinching sympathy for others made her the friend of all she met. No one was more scrupulously just to the character and performance of others; no one more candid; no one more deserving of every kind of reliance; endowed with a heart and mind that always looked for and found the good and right in all circumstances. She united the utmost delicacy and nobleness of sentiment; a benevolence that knew no limit but the farthest extent of her ability.

Ripened in years and fully prepared for another state of existence she passed on to enjoy the reward of a life well spent on earth.

And he with whom she trod the rugged paths of life for more than a half century will be her companion once more, and they will sleep until that great day when it will be declared "that time shall be no more."

The beautiful prayer, evidently a favorite with Mrs. Marshall, carried by her in her purse follows:

A PRAYER

Let me do my work each day; and if the darkened hours of despair overcome me, may I not forget the strength that comforted me in the desolation of other times.

May I still remember the bright hours that found me walking over the silent hills of my childhood, or dreaming on the margin of the quiet river, when a light glowed within me, and I promised my early God to have courage amid the tempests of the changing years. Spare me from bitterness and passions of unguarded movements. May I not forget that poverty and riches are of the spirit.

Though the world know me not, may my thoughts and actions be such as shall keep me friendly with myself. Lift my eyes from the earth and let me not forget the uses of the stars. Forbid that I should judge others lest I condemn myself. Let me not follow the clamor of the world, but walk calmly in the path. Give me a few friends who will love me for what I am; and keep ever burning before my vagrant steps the kindly light of hope.

And though age and infirmity overtake me, and I come not within sight of the castle of my dreams, teach me still to be thankful for life and for time's olden memories that are good and sweet and may the evening's twilight find me, gentle still.—Exchange.

"Skinner's Baby" ESSAYAY

Making a Hobby Out of Hubby

A Continuous Laugh For an Hour and a Half

Have you never seen one of those proud, perspiring, perturbed, puffed up persons, a prospective pater? If not, you've missed one of life's joyful thrills. Skinner was a regular guy, everybody knows that, and the office force was willing to take the payroll on him. Imagine the sensation when he breezed in like a quarter-horse, breathed at the top of his voice the "info" that McLaughlin, Perkins & Skinner would honor the arrival of "Skinner's Baby" with a holiday? He neglected to elucidate that he was merely rearing the gladsome tidings from a promise that "Honey" had made him, so the gang took it for gospel. "It's a Boy," started a stampede that made a bargain counter rush look like "right about face." When he finally came up for air and gasped, "Holiday," they made a hegira for home. When Skinner hit the front doorstep he had to hurdle a truck-load of trains, baseball paraphernalia, riding horses and other implements of juvenile warfare, for the bunch certainly put a brown crust on anything they cooked up. And nobody but Honey, Skinner and the officiating Doc knew that the "Stork Limited" was running behind the schedule. Then sad to relate the man of the hour discovered that admission to his own celebration was by card only, and his invitation had been misplaced. He was playing the lead in "Ousted from His Own Fireside." However, they took pity on him and finally let him in on the anti-climax—but it almost amounted to a climax when Skinner found out what had occurred.

The Herald-Republican, published at Salt Lake City, Utah, in a recent issue contained the following complimentary mention of Mr. Philip Bentz, former resident of this city, who is a son of Mrs. Elizabeth Bentz and brother of Mr. Louis W. Bentz, merchant, of East Paint street:

"Business and railroad men in Salt Lake City and Murray, and in fact throughout this entire portion of the state, will learn with a great deal of interest the news that Philip Bentz, for the past eighteen years station agent for the Oregon Short Line at Murray, has resigned from that position to accept the office of secretary-treasurer of the Miller-Cahoon company of Murry, Utah, and Idaho Falls, Ida., one of the largest farm implements, machinery and lumber companies in the intermountain west. Mrs. Ruth Brownell and daughter Miss Lucy entertained the members of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Grace M. E. church Wednesday afternoon at their home. There was a good attendance and the true missionary spirit prevailed above all else, while mingling together in this good, Christian home.

There is a sacred, hallowed feeling which takes possession of one as he enters the door of this home, so many years under Christian influence.

The meeting was one of enthusiasm and inspiration, due in part, no doubt, to the fine missionary talk given by Rev. Buck, of the O. W. U. on Sunday preceding the meeting.

The study for the year is "The African Question"—textbook "Under the Crescent and Among the Kraols." After a short business meeting a very interesting program followed; Mrs. W. E. Ireland as leader gave valuable information. She introduced her reading on Africa by a little hymn entitled: "The Master's Service First." Her reading covered much of importance concerning Africa.

"Africa's biggest problem is its bigness" being the home of one-eighth of the population of our world. For all Africa the average missionary parish is 133,000 people. Surely it is time for us to study this continent and its people.

Mrs. Hodson followed by reading a leaflet "They Came by Night." Mrs. Wm. McClain read a leaflet entitled "Christians in Algiers."

Delegates appointed to convention to be held in Grace church October 25th were Mrs. Frank Kennedy and Mrs. Hopkins. Alternates, Mrs. Wm. McClain and Miss Fannie McLean.

FAYETTE LIBERTY LOAN COMMITTEE HIGHLY PRAISED

Leaders Back of Liberty Loan Campaign in This Federal Reserve District Send Congratulations to Local Liberty Loan Committee.

Chairman C. P. Ballard, of the Fayette County Liberty Loan Committee, is receiving congratulations over the phenomenal showing made by the Bankers of Fayette County, and those in charge of the Federal Reserve District work have announced Fayette is the first county to subscribe the full allotment.

Manager L. B. Williams, of the Federal Reserve District committee, which includes Ohio and parts of Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Kentucky, telegraphed Mr. Ballard as follows:

"Fayette leads all counties in this district by being first in subscribing her quota. Desire to make wide recognition of Fayette County's leadership. Congratulations."

Gordon Reis, Chairman, of the Cincinnati County District, Liberty Loan Committee, has written Chairman Ballard, saying in part:

"I wish to congratulate you and your efficient committee and co-workers on the immediate and generous response to the Second Liberty Loan offer.

"We did not anticipate any county would be in position to report its full quota subscribed, and I know positively in that respect Fayette County occupies the roll of honor in this district, and I assume you are probably the first county in the entire state to report its entire quota subscribed.

"I will personally see to it that the Cincinnati newspapers are notified of this fact. I am very anxious to have the news spread broadcast, not only to reflect proper honor, glory and credit upon your excellent county, but also to make it an incentive to other counties in the district.

"Again permit me to congratulate you and thank you sincerely for your extreme kindness and courtesy."

RECKLESS DRIVER SENDS ATTORNEY

A Dayton attorney representing Steve Kender, the man who is alleged to have deliberately rammed the Grant Rankin automobile off the public highway, Sunday morning, was in this city Wednesday endeavoring to adjust the matter amicably without court proceedings, but so far as known did not succeed in doing so, and there is indication that the courts will soon be interested in the case.

The attorney for Kender is said to have insisted that the Kender machine did not strike the Rankin car, but passed close to it. However, the marks on the Rankin machine indicate that the car was dealt more than one heavy blow by a big car.

SAM SMALL WILL OPEN DRY FIGHT IN THIS COUNTY

Dr. Sam Small, the eloquent orator of the Sunny South, and one of the hardest men to book on the platform today, will fire the opening gun in the dry campaign in Fayette county, Saturday of next week, when he will speak in Memorial Hall.

Cleanse the blood, the bowels and the liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's never any sickness or pain after taking them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cured with "a dark brown taste," bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Fayette County and the Liberty Loan

That was splendid when the bankers of Fayette County stepped forward and guaranteed $500,000 for our business men and farmers who have done so many big things. The ability of Fayette Countians to do big things—their willingness to undertake big projects and put them through has put the county on the map.

That's why there is no richer and no more prosperous county in the state than our own, Fayette. Our ancestors saw the possibilities and literally, hewed and drained this "garden spot" of land out of the wilderness and the swamps.

Following generations took the opportunity which the forefathers had seized hold on and ever since have been improving the land and making it more productive.

This year the income of Fayette County has far exceeded that of any other year in its history—more acres have been farmed—men have worked harder and they have known how to work better this year than ever before and prices are 100 per cent better than ever before. The result has been almost a fourfold increase of income.

What's the result? Simply this, Fayette County is known far and wide as the county that does big things.

The proof of that assertion is on every hand, in the progress made and the abundant prosperity.

The latest "overt act" is that of the bankers of the county. The campaign for the sale of the liberty loan bonds opened Monday noon and early on Wednesday morning the bankers of the county notified the national authorities that Fayette County's quota of five hundred thousand dollars had been subscribed.

The banks knew the ability and the inclination of the people of the county and they promptly agreed to guarantee Fayette's share.

By so doing they put the county way out in front on the map—the first county in the United States to have its quota subscribed.

Now our progressive men are not going to be long in justifying the estimate which the bankers placed upon them.

The bankers knew our people were prosperous and patriotic and that they knew that here in Fayette County we know a good investment—4 per cent tax free absolute security—when we see it.

Big thing for the bankers to do? Certainly it was and the people will make good on the guarantee too. Our bankers do big things here and so do the people.

Germany Awakening

Nothing is more conclusive proof of the fact that the morale, if you please, but in the ordinary understanding, the "nerve" of the German army is giving way—in fact has already given way—before the slow but irresistible drive of the British and French than the frantic and worse than useless, series of attacks.

The wrought up and anxious German forces, now acknowledgedly on the defensive, facing that appalling array of men and artillery, for days after a successful offensive has been launched against them, realizing that they are outmatched in men and guns and strategy, knowing that their barbaric acts of frightfulness such as the world never dreamed possible, have failed utterly to intimidate that relentless force, are unequal to the strain.

Neither commanders nor men can stand the strain of waiting for the offensive which they know is coming and which, they feel certain will be successful.

To relieve the maddening tension, futile attacks are launched with the full realization that they are nothing more than a diversion—a relief to the anxiety and the uncertainty.

Waiting—waiting for the end—postponing that end as long as possible, uncertain when it will come, how long it will be in coming or what the cost of each hour postponement will be, is taking the fighting life out of the German troops.

As the old guard of Napoleon dashed against the bristling squares of Wellington at Waterloo and perished almost to a man rather than surrender, there seems, in that great tragedy of war in Flanders and at Verdun, something akin to suicide in these wild, aimless attacks.

The pressure and advance of the Allies against their hemmed in foes, slowly but surely moving on is like the constant dropping of water. The stone will wear away in time. The rough rock of the German military is cracked and crumbling under the pressure.

Even the dogged stubbornness of Prussianism must give way, eventually to liberty and the rights of men. Realization of the inevitable, which is clearly seen now despite a front of unreasoning boastfulness is the first step toward the end.

And realization has come to the German forces.

Poetry For Today

ODE TO THE SLACKER!
 What will you say, young man of today,
 When your son clambers up on your knees,
 And, with eyes all ashine, says "Daddy of mine,
 In the days when the world was made free,
 Oh, what was your part in that wonderful mart
 Where the price that men paid was to die?
 What did you do, Dad?" "I did nothing, Lad."
 Is that what you'll have to reply?
 What will you say, young man of today,
 When all this grim carnage is done,
 If others have fought your fight and have brought
 Your peace from the murderous Hun
 Will you brazenly dare to ask for a share
 In what they have anguished to buy?
 Or if you could sink to such depths, can you think,
 What surely would be their reply?
 You are called on to weigh, young man of today,
 Comparative losses and gains.
 Is stoppage of breath as gastly as death
 As living when honor is slain
 In that wonderful earth that is coming to birth
 The roll will be called by and by,
 And each man must declare his right to be there.
 What, then, will you have to reply?

NEW POLICY TOWARD ALL "NEUTRALS"

(By American Press)

Washington, Oct. 4.—That important developments are pending affecting Scandinavia and Holland is the strong conviction in official circles here.

Ever increasing tightening of the allied embargo on shipment of supplies of all kinds to Sweden, Norway, Denmark and Holland is rapidly creating a situation which may have an important bearing on the war.

The complaint of these countries against the American embargo is growing louder. This, coupled with Great Britain's stopping shipment of all articles to Scandinavia and Holland, is expected to bring a crisis.

There is a persistent rumor that Germany may try to seize Holland, particularly if the British menace against the Ostend-Zeebrugge bases becomes more acute, or if there should appear to be any suggestion of an allied coup getting a foothold in Holland.

To those familiar with the military and economic situation in Germany, the new policy indicates that the allied governments have come to the conclusion that by making every use of economic weapons the war will be ended much more quickly than by military supremacy alone.

Great Britain's embargo on the export of all supplies to the northern European neutral countries was declared after every phase of its possible effect was gone over in conferences between American and allied statesmen. American officials, it was learned, initiated the discussions and insisted that the British step be taken to make sure that there be no nullification of the purposes the United States had in view in putting into operation its own embargo.

BERNSTORFF HANDLED THE "SPY" MONEY

Evidence as to Treachery of Former Ambassador Accumulates.

New York Banks Handled the Funds.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

New York, October 4.—Evidence indicating the German funds held by New York banks, for the Deutsch Bank of Berlin, and which were employed to pay Bolo Pasha, German spy, and peace propagandist, were placed at the disposal of Count von Bernstorff by wireless from the German foreign office, according to Attorney General Merton E. Lewis.

This evidence conclusively proves, according to the attorney general that Count von Bernstorff had a direct hand in directing the activities of Bolo Pasha who is now under arrest in Paris.

It was obtained, he said, from Hugo Schmidt, agent here of the Deutsche Bank, whom he examined today.

GOVERNOR COX BIDS FAREWELL TO OHIO TROOPS

Dispatch from New York Indicates that "Rainbow Division" is on Verge of Departing for France.

The following dispatch from New York, today, indicates that the Fourth Regiment, or the new 166th Regiment, of which company M of this city is a unit, is on the verge of departing for France:

"Governor and Mrs. James M. Cox arrived today at Mineola, L. I. to bid farewell to the Fourth Regiment, which is in the rainbow division. This division will soon leave for France. Adjutant General Wood and Miss Helen Cox, the Governor's daughter, are also in the party."

Letters reaching here from members of Company M have indicated that preparations were going forward for breaking camp, and that rumors were that the men were about to depart for Cuba, or some southern camp although there was a vague indication that France was the destination of the troops.

Mrs. O. E. Hardway has been in Mineola for several days, giving rise to the belief that she had been summoned to bid farewell to Captain Hardway commander of Company M, and that orders for breaking camp probably this week had been received.

CALL FOR WOMEN FOOD CONSERVATION WORKERS

New York, October 3.—A card like the above will be hung in the window of every home in this city within the next few days, if Chairman Williams, of the Food Card Campaign and his 10,000 women co-workers have their way. The cards are to be signed by housewives and are to pledge them to a careful use of food. A house-to-house canvass in every corner of the city is to start shortly. For the purpose of this campaign every one of the sixty-eight Assembly Districts will have its captain and each election district its lieutenant, and under the officers the women canvassers will assail the food wasters. All the women's organizations have been won to the fight and a general committee of 200 will serve as Mr. William's aides.

NAMING OF CAMP STREETS IS UNDER WAY

Interesting Sidelights on Ohio's Big Military Training Camp Where Fayette Men Train.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., October 4.—When construction engineers had things humming in a building way, they laid the camp out in sections, starting with section "A" and dividing the whole cantonment so that there was a section for each letter in the alphabet. That method of designating a certain part of the camp has remained in usage but very soon the sectional signs and sectional markers will disappear and then the selective draft men will begin to speak of "Columbus street," "Toledo street," "Cincinnati street," etc.

All the roadways have been named after Ohio cities and towns. The one through the middle of the camp is Columbus street. The main road on the east side is Toledo street. The one on the west side is Cincinnati street. They are the chief north and south roads. But there are many short east and west roads, each named after an Ohio town. For instance, main or central Y. M. C. A. building and the Knights of Columbus main or central building are on Massillon street.

There will be a few named after West Pennsylvania towns because there are to be 4300 Pennsylvania men in the Ohio cantonment.

After the construction men get out of the way, street signs will be put up and visitors can be directed by streets instead of by the present system of unfamiliar and hard-to-understand sectional designations.

Selective draft soldiers here at the Chillicothe cantonment have learned to notice, among other things, that any automobile that has a red flag, unfurled with one big white star in the center of it, attached to the front end carries a brigadier general. There are 4 such flags in the camp. If there is a red flag with two big white stars in the center and the flag is unfurled, Major General E. F. Glenn, commander of the Eighty-third division, is in that car. If the flags are furled the generals are not in the car. Maybe the sergeant-drivers of general's cars are always sergeants—is out for a little joy-ride.

When "forty per cent men" from Newark detained at one of Camp Sherman's receiving stations last week and the roll was called, one lone man stood apart, as if overlooked in the military routine.

"Your name has been called?" asked an officer.

"No sir," was the reply.

"Are you a drafted man?" he was asked.

"No sir," again.

"Come here with the boys?"

"Yes sir."

"What about it—tell us."

"Well, I was watching the boys as they were getting on the train and they said 'come on' and so I just thought I would ride down with them."

The man was turned over to a guard, who was instructed to give the "outsider" proper directions and a good start on his way back to Newark.

ARGENTINA'S CHIEF MAY RESIGN POST
(By American Press)
Buenos Ayres, Oct. 4.—President Irigoyen of Argentina will resign on Oct. 12, on the ground of ill-health, according to information secured from a reliable source. The president is reported near a mental collapse as a result of the public clamor aroused by his stand against a break with Germany and of the chaos brought about by the general strike. It is understood that President Irigoyen's physician urged him to give up his executive position because of the mental and physical strain it entailed and that the president finally yielded, deciding to resign on the first anniversary of his election, Oct. 10.

MORE PROOF OF TREACHERY UNEARTHED

(By American Press)
New York, Oct. 4.—Proof that German money was furnished in this country by Count Von Bernstorff to Bolo Pasha, under arrest in Paris as a spy, will be forwarded today to the French government, it was announced by Merton E. Lewis, state attorney general.

The attorney general, who investigated Bolo Pasha's activities here at the request of Ambassador Jusserand, said that it was a preliminary report, submitted by him to the ambassador last week, which resulted in the arrest of Bolo Pasha in Paris. "The conclusion will be substantiated by a mass of documentary evidence," the attorney general's statement said, "including photographic reproductions of the checks, bank records and other proofs of the disposition of the German money furnished Bolo Pasha in this country by ex-Ambassador Bernstorff."

Bolo Pasha, who was in the United States between Feb. 22 and March 17, 1915, came here, according to Mr. Lewis, to arrange for the transfer of German money to Paris through New York banking institutions to further peace propaganda in France. He succeeded in getting at least $1,600,000 over to the French capital through J. P. Morgan & Company, and other banking institutions, the attorney general's investigation disclosed. Part of this money, it was revealed, went to Senator Charles Humbert, owner of Le Journal, a Paris newspaper, which, however, according to cable dispatches, he refunded after becoming suspicious of Bolo.

DEATH IS PENALTY FOR ALL DESERTERS WARNING IS ISSUED

(By American Press)
Chillicothe, O., Oct. 4.—Deserters will pay the penalty of death, according to instructions to Major General Glenn from the war department. Selects who fail to report to local selective service boards will be classed as deserters, the order said. A reward of $50 will be paid for each deserter delivered to military authorities. Where the desertion is not willful the penalty will be left to court martial.

Brigadier General James H. McKee, One Hundred and Fifty-eighth depot brigade, has been ordered to Chillicothe by the war department.

While the new men were coming in, aliens and pro-Germans were being transferred from all infantry and artillery units to the depot brigades, where they will be kept until some further step is taken to provide for them. The alien enemies, it definitely is known, will be discharged. The others, largely foreigners from countries allied with Germany, will not be kept in the line with fighting units.

TO COPE WITH PERIL OF GERMAN SUBS

(By American Press)
Washington, Oct. 4.—Remarkable progress has been made in the quick building of the immense flotilla of American destroyers to cope with the submarine menace. The navy department now is assured of much quicker delivery of the ships than was contemplated at the last estimate, which in itself was far ahead of the original time.

Progress on the ships now building and arrangements for others to follow, it was said at the navy department, are such that the American navy will lead the world with its destroyers within 18 months.

It is now certain that all destroyers now building will be delivered ready for duty in European waters early next year. Many of them had not been expected until the winter of 1918. Approximately ten months has been saved.

All new destroyers are of a new design worked out by the navy department and showing radical changes from any of these craft now afloat. The great majority of them will be 15-knot vessels of improved sea-keeping qualities, adding to their effectiveness as submarine hunters.

LEASE WRIGHT FIELD
(By American Press)
Washington, Oct. 4.—The Wright field at North Dayton, O., has been leased by the United States government for an aviation experimental field. The field will hereafter be known as the McCook field. Hangars and barracks will be erected immediately. The field will be under command of Lieutenant Colonel Clark of the equipment division of the signal corps.

LAD IS INJURED BY AUTOMOBILE

Richard, the eleven year old son of County Highway Superintendent and Mrs. Tom Grove, nearly met death under the wheels of an automobile owned by Samuel Sollars, Wednesday evening, as the automobile was leaving the Ortman Garage.

The lad was riding a bicycle and when struck by the automobile was hurled underneath the machine and the auto passed over him, one wheel running over his body.

He was picked up in an unconscious condition and after medical attention was removed to his home. He was painfully bruised but not seriously injured, and his recovery is expected to be speedy.

It is believed that had it not been for the bicycle breaking the force of the automobile as it passed over his body, that death would have been almost instantaneous.

MUST BOARD MEN TO OBTAIN LABOR

That Fayette county farmers must provide board for farm hands if they can obtain sufficient labor to harvest the corn crop is the opinion of Superintendent Smith of the Fayette-Clinton Labor Exchange, who states that at the present time this is the worst problem with which the bureau is confronted.

Many men coming into the county for corn cutting and other work on the farm until corn husking demand places to board and when these are not forthcoming they wait until board and lodging is offered before accepting a job not having come equipped to board themselves.

The demand for men is still in excess of the supply and wages are exceptionally good.

The heavy frost early this week has greatly ripened the corn and added to the demand for men to cut the corn as speedily as possible.

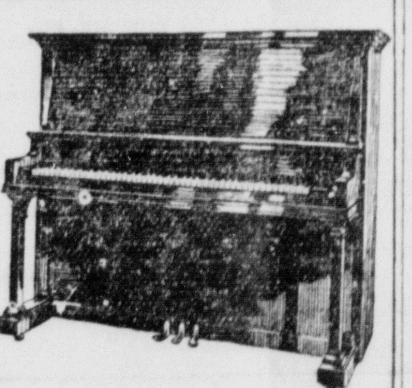

HIGH BROW MUSIC FOR THE JACKIES

(By Associated Press Dispatch)
Great Lakes, Ill., October 4. — If you happen to hear a sea-faring blue-jacket of Uncle Sam's Navy humming a snatch of "La Tosca" or "Il Pagliaccio" as he strolls about, do not be surprised.

"High brow" music is to be a part of the jackies training at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station, where five eights of the new American Navy personnel are being instructed. The famous Great Lakes Navy band which is being "tutored to tot" under the personal direction of Lieutenant John Philip Sousa, is specializing in the operas.

Stirring marches are necessary, according to Lieutenant Sousa, to rouse patriotism and the fighting spirit, but if played exclusively they may lead to a disregard of the finer principles. Therefore the band leader is combining with the martial music a considerable amount of classical music. This combination keeps the men in excellent morale, refines them, and does not place uppermost the frightfulness of warfare, as is true when only the martial music is played, he says.

RETURNS TO HOME GONE TWO YEARS
(By American Press)
Cleveland, Oct. 4.—John W. Biermacher 56, who disappeared in 1915 and who was believed to be dead, has returned here. A photograph of his wife carried in his pocket through his wanderings, was the means of identification when a friend met Biermacher in Canton several days ago. Biermacher came back to find that his wife and children had long since given him up for dead; that his manufacturing business, of which he was president, had been closed and that his will, leaving property valued at $25,000 to his wife, had been probated. "I don't know where I was," Biermacher said, "except that I've been working for a year in a factory at Canton."

LOW RECORD FOR U-BOATS ESTABLISHED

Reduction in Weekly Shipping Losses Is Encouraging.

(By American Press)

London, Oct. 4.—Eleven British merchantmen of more than 1,500 tons each and two vessels under 1,500 tons were sunk by mines or submarines last week, the British admiralty announced. Sixteen British vessels were unsuccessfully attacked.

The foregoing statement of the British admiralty again lowers the aggregate of British merchantmen sunk by mines or submarines during any week since Germany began her intensified submarine campaign. As against 15 vessels sunk the previous week, which was the low record since February, only 13 merchantmen are shown to have been sent to the bottom last week.

The total of all losses to world's shipping since Germany's ruthless U-boat war went into effect aggregate about two-thirds of those claimed by the Germans in a statement issued Sept. 1.

Since the middle of last week the German forces in Flanders daily have been trying to wrest from the British territory taken from them in the recent offensive of Field Marshal Haig.

As on previous days, Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria unleashed large numbers of his troops in an attempt to recapture terrain on the Ypres sector, where the British are seriously threatening his communication line with Ostend and the submarine base at Zeebrugge. The British again wrought havoc among the attacking waves and dispersed the Germans.

with heavy casualties and retained all their positions intact.

Although the German war office asserts that in Tuesday's fighting along the eastern bank of the Meuse in the Verdun sector the Germans captured a comparatively long line of French trenches, the French official communications makes no mention of this and asserts merely that violent artillery fighting and spirited patrol engagements took place.

While British and French air men continue their bombing operations against Germany's submarine base at Zeebrugge and points of military importance behind the lines, the French aviators are keeping up their attack on German towns and cities in reprisal for the shelling by German aircraft of the open town of Harle-Duc.

Likewise the Italians are giving the Austrians little respite from aerial incursions, again having dropped four tons of projectiles on military objectives at Palo, the great Austrian naval base on the Adriatic, and bombed other points of military advantage. In addition the Italians have repulsed decisively another Austrian attack on the western slopes of Monta San Gabriele, in the Gorizia sector.

CONN DECLINES TO BE FUEL BOSS

(By American Press)

Columbus, Oct. 4.—Harry L. Conn of Van Wert told Governor Cox he can not accept the position of state fuel administrator. The governor has recommended another to Federal Administrator Garfield, who is expected to announce the appointment without delay. Conn who had accepted tentatively, said he did not know until he talked to Garfield that the position would require all his time. He is a lawyer without a partner.

CLAYTON SEXTON WRITES ON EVE OF VOYAGE ON OCEAN

Clayton Sexton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Sexton, of this city, now a member of the United States Marines, and who has been stationed at Paris Island, S. C., has written to his brother, Mr. Virgil Sexton, while on the eve of departing for some unknown destination on an American vessel.

The letter, with exception of the date of departure, which was several days ago, follows:

"Paris Island, S. C.

"Dear Brother:—

"I will drop you a few lines this evening to let you know we are going to leave.

"I wrote the folks at home this a. m., but since then we got the order to move. We won't know where we are going until after we get started. We had short arm inspection this afternoon. I guess you know what that means.

"I was the Major's orderly last night and this morning, a fellow named Ward and myself were color guards in Regimental parade.

"They are going to have a special drill of some kind this evening and the order just came in for the same color guards to be on the job, so I guess the Colonel must be satisfied with the way we did it.

"I had been saving up for a far-rough, but I am afraid that there is nothing doing, because there is a pretty strong rumor that we will be sent to the Danish West Indies. That would be all right for this winter, but I would like to go home before we go.

"We got sea bags the other day, so it looks like we are going on an ocean voyage somewhere.

"Well I must close because it is chow time.
